

MARINE ORNITHOLOGY

Marine Ornithology is published by the Pacific Seabird Group, on behalf of the African, Australasian, Dutch, Japanese and UK Seabird Groups. The journal provides an international outlet for publications relating to marine birds, extending its reach and accessibility by appearing free on the World Wide Web in a form that can be downloaded and printed in the same style as the hardcopy document. The print version is available for both individual and institutional subscribers.

Remittances for all institutional and all other individual subscriptions to the print version of Marine Ornithology should be sent in US dollars or the equivalent (institutional US$80, individual US$40) to Tony Gaston, 11–174 Dufferin Road, Ottawa, Ontario, K1M 2A6, Canada. (marine.ornithology@ec.gc.ca)

Individual subscription rates for residents of World Bank–classified “low income” and “middle income” countries are set at half the rate for those in wealthier countries (individual US$20). (For country classifications, see <http://web.worldbank.org/WBSITE/EXTERNAL/DATASTATISTICS/>.)

Marine Ornithology publishes papers relating to the biology and conservation of birds associated with the marine environment—behaviour, biogeography, ecology, evolution, genetics, physiology and systematics. Papers are especially invited on topics relating to the special adaptations of marine birds, the relationship between seabirds and oceanography, and seabird–fisheries interactions. Papers will be accepted on their merits as either pure science (advancement of knowledge) or conservation (advancement of seabird conservation), including issues relating to public policy and legislation. Normal academic publishing policy is followed with respect to authorship, originality and sole publication. Everything that appears in the printed journal also appears on the Web site.

Submissions may be any of the following:

Review articles: Major papers reviewing an area of marine bird science or conservation that achieve a new synthesis of existing information.

Papers: Reports of research results or conservation action exceeding 2000 words in length.

Short communications: Reports shorter than 2000 words.

Status reports: Comprehensive reviews of seabird population status for species and geographic regions.

Forum articles: Short papers commenting on material carried by the journal, reporting new hypotheses relating to marine bird science or conservation, or reporting biologic or physical processes relevant to marine birds but hitherto little known or ignored by marine ornithologists.
