

NEWS Eleanor Dater, of Ramsey, N.J., EBBA's Vice President, IN banded a male Spotted Towhee October 29th ★ ★ ★ The BRIEF October 19 issue of Sports Illustrated features a most interesting and informative article on bird banding by EBBA Member Gilbert Cant. The article is titled "When You See This, Act!" and is headed by an enlarged picture of an opened band. Good publicity such as this ought to be of the greatest help in securing more recovery reports ★ ★ ★ The August issue of The Ring, the splendid international banding publication, contains two articles by EBBA members: "Bird Banding at the Hawk Mountain Sanctuary" by Maurice Broun and "Banding Records -- Further Comments on the Dickerson system, by Joseph R. Jehl ★ ★ ★ We suppose that every member has written or wired their national political representatives about the Navy's plan to kill off all the albatross on Sand Island of the Midway Group ★ ★ ★ Frederick R. Scott has banded, either at Richmond or on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, more of certain species than has been reported in "Who. . .", notably 40 Snowy Egrets and 56 Louisiana Herons ★ ★ ★ And John L. Thompson, of Rocky Mount, N.C., banded 79
 Black Skimmers - a dozen more than Bennett Matlack reported ★ ★ ★ Frank Frazier Jr. has again done the work of preparing EBBA NEWS for the printer ★ ★ ★
