We want you.....

to get involved

Bird Observer is created entirely by volunteers: people who love to bird and want to give something back to the birding community. If you fit this description and would enjoy the chance to work with a dedicated group of people, we have an opportunity for you to join us.

Managing Editor Are you good at managing details, deadlines, and follow-up? You could be just the person we are looking for. Our editorial staff is responsible for bringing in and editing articles, but the Managing Editor pulls the pieces together and makes them into a finished issue of Bird Observer. It is definitely time-consuming and requires excellent organizational skills. Preference will be given to someone with editorial experience, but it is not a necessity.
