

ADVANCE PROGRAM FOR THE ANNUAL MEETING AT THE ACADEMY OF NATURAL SCIENCES
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY, APRIL 6 & 7, 1957

A welcoming committee will register you beginning at 9 o'clock. The meeting will begin at 10:00. Luncheon may be had at a variety of nearby places.

President Paul Fluck announces that there will be a program packed with papers, some of them illustrated, full of information of the greatest interest to banders. There will be papers by Raymond Middleton, Ralph Bell, Mrs. Eleanor Dater, Mrs. Eve Townsend, Dr. C. Brooke Worth, Dr. Benjamin Burtt, Dr. Allen Duvall, Chandler Robbins and others.

A full hour has been set aside for a discussion of the use of mist nets. This will be preceded by a talk by Allen Duvall on net regulations, training, techniques, etc.

The annual banquet will be held at the Robert Morris Hotel at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening. It will be followed by a Round Table Discussion with every member participating and a color sound movie, BEHIND THE FLYWAYS, courtesy of the Fish and Wildlife Service. This movie will show scenes of the Banding Office and promises to be of the greatest interest to all.

On Sunday, there will be a field trip to visit South Jersey banding stations, including those of Bennett K. Matlack at Bridgeton, J. George Hitchner, at Pitman, Reverend Garrett Detwiler at Salem, William H. Jenkins at Elmer, and William Middleton at Wenonah.

Write William Pepper NOW if you plan to attend the annual banquet --
-- William Pepper, 20 East Bells Mill Road, Philadelphia 18, Pa. --
NO RESERVATION - NO DINNER, for Bill must give the hotel the right number by March 29th. The Annual Banquet will be held at the Robert Morris Hotel, 6:30 p.m., April 6th. Cost $3.00 and worth every penny in food, good company and entertainment. MAIL IT TODAY!

Hotels to stay at, near the Academy of Natural Sciences, are the Robert Morris Hotel, 17th and Arch Sts., Single rooms $4.75 to $6.50; double bed $8.00; twin beds $8.50 to $9.00 - every room with bath - and the new Sheraton Hotel, single rooms $8.85 to $18.00; double bed $13.00 to $15.00; twin beds $14.00 to $19.00. Make your reservations with the hotels direct.
