

"MRS. LARSEN'S BIRDS GET AROUND"

By Mabel Gillespie

The July-August issue of EBBA News includes recovery notes from William Savell of Linwood, N. J. He reports that a Yellow-breasted Chat banded by Mrs. Roy Larsen at Siasconset, Nantucket, Mass., 9-28-65 was caught by him five days later. He also caught a White-throated Sparrow which Mrs. Larsen had banded at her winter home in Fairfield, Conn., two years previously.

Mrs. Larsen's birds really get around. A White-throated Sparrow which she banded at Siasconset 10-3-57 was captured at my station in Glenolden, Pa., 11-6-57, about a month later. Now the Chat which Mr. Savell caught was following the main flyway along the coast, but the one which I caught came inland to the Delaware River flyway. Incidentally I caught also in Glenolden a Cowbird which Mrs. Larsen had banded in Fairfield a year and a half earlier.
