

44th ANNUAL MEETING
EASTERN BIRD BANDING ASSOCIATION

- When: April 7, 8 & 9, 1967
- Where: University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland (close to the Bird Banding Office at Laurel).
- How to Get there? See map on front cover.
- Reservations: Reservations for rooms may be sent to: Division of Conferences and Institutes, Center of Adult Education, The University of Maryland, College Park, Md. 20740 (Rates per person: $8.00 single and $5.50 double.

Mention EBBA in your letter - no deposit required.)
- Program: The Program Committee, composed of Cynthia Turner of Silver Springs, Md., William C. Russell of the Bird Banding Office, and Franklin McCamey (Chairman) EBBA vice president, promise full details of the interesting and exciting program in time for the next issue of EBBA News. . . . in the meantime. . . .
- Meeting Highlights: Tour of the Bird Banding Office under the aegis of Earl Baysinger and all the good persons he mentions in his poetry (?)
- Guided trips to the Research Library and Population Study Exhibits, the Rare and Endangered Species Study, the Blackbird Investigations Program, the Wildlife Habitat Research, the Mist Netting Sites and other of the various activities of the Patuxent Wildlife Research Laboratory.
- Friday night (April 7) reception for meeting old friends - making new friends - finding out just what bander is doing what. . . .and how.
- Saturday morning Annual EBBA Meeting and election of officers - Saturday evening Banquet - etc.
- Exhibit: Bring your own special devices to share with fellow members -- traps, tools, techniques, etc. -- display tables and wall space will be available in the meeting place (Center of Adult Education) Friday evening and all day Saturday.

