MERRILL WOOD was born in Philadelphia in 1908. He obtained his BS and MS degrees from The Pennsylvania State University, and did special work at Cornell, Bucknell Universities and at Lebanon State College. He became interested in birds when he was 12, and in banding in about 1927 through his father, Dr. Harold B. Wood, former EBBA President. Merrill, now a life member of EBBA, was Treasurer for 9 years, as well as President. He's also a member of the following: NEBBA, IBBA, WBBA, OBBA, AOU, WOS (former Treasurer), COS, BBC, BBA, etc.

He retired from the Pennsylvania State University's Biology Department in 1973 and published several works. The best known are: A Bird-bander's Guide to the determination of Age and Sex of Selected Species and Birds of Pennsylvania (two editions). His research currently centers on determination of avian Age & Sex, and distribution of birds in central Pennsylvania. He's travelled in all 48 U.S. States, Canada, Mexico, Great Britain, and Africa. He's married to Helen K. Croll of Middletown, Pa., has one son, one daughter, and five grandchildren. To date he's banded over 29,000 individual birds of 117 species.
