

- Buchanan, G.D., and R.V. Talmage. 1954. The geographical distribution of the armadillo in the United States. Texas. Jour. Sci., 6: 142-150.
- Fitch, Henry S., Phil Goodrum, and Coleman Newman. 1952. The armadillo in the southeastern United States. J. Mamm., 33: 21-37.
- Golley, Frank B. 1962. Mammals of Georgia. Univ. of Georgia Press, Athens. 218 pp.
- Holliman, Dan C. 1963. The mammals of Alabama. Unpubl. Ph. D. dissertation, Univ. of Alabama.
- Lowery, George H. 1943. Check-list of mammals of Louisiana and adjacent waters. Occ. Papers Mus. Zool., La. State Univ. 13:213-257.
- Neill, Wildred T. 1952. The spread of the armadillo in Florida. Ecology, 33: 282-284.
- Sherman, H.B. 1943. The armadillo in Florida. Fla. Entomologist, 26: 54-59.
- Strecker, J.K. 1926. The extension of range of the Nine-banded Armadillo. J. Mamm., 7: 206-210.
- Wolfe, James L. 1969. Armadillo distribution in Alabama and northwest Florida. Quart. Jour. Fla. Acad. Sci., 31: 209-212.
- Dept. of Biol. Science, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida 32306; Tall Timbers Research Station, Route 1, Box 160, Tallahassee, Florida 32303.*

Special Notice

Dr. Robert L. Fleming, of Kathmandu, Nepal, is presently completing a book entitled Birds of Nepal. There will be a limited first edition with 2000 copies for distribution in the U.S. In order to develop a fund to pay for full color plates, a pre-publication price of $10.00 per copy (autographed by the author) is being offered in 1974. In addition, you may commission an original 9x15" painting of your favorite Himalayan bird with a background of a selected Himalayan peak for $30.00. Finally, the original plates used in the book will be available on a first-come, first-served basis for $100, $150 and $200 each, depending on detail and size. Orders placed now will place your name high on a priority list when selections are made as the book comes off the press. Checks may be made payable to Robert L. Fleming and sent to Mrs. Vern Beielser, 1028 Crestwood, Wenatchee, Washington 98801 . . . Herbert W. Kale, II.