

THE MISSISSIPPI KITE

Vol. III, No. 1

January, 1973

Mississippi Kites at home

A Periodical Published by the Mississippi Ornithological Society to Record and Further the Study of Mississippi Birdlife.

Vol. III

January 1973

No. 1

Contents

	Page
Mass Migration of Blue Jays Along Offshore Mississippi and Louisiana Islands -----	2
First Record of the Red Crossbill in Mississippi --	3
An Observation of a Least Tern Laying an Egg -----	4
Observations at a Nest of a Giant Canada Goose at Noxubee National Wildlife Refuge -----	6
M. O. S. Officers and Memberships -----	11

Frontispiece: Mississippi Kites from an original drawing by Albert F. Ganier. Mr. Ganier made studies of the Kites in the Vicksburg, Mississippi area around the turn of the century. References to his publications and photographs of Mississippi Kites are recorded in Life Histories of North American Birds of Prey by Arthur Cleveland Bent. Mr. Ganier maintained a lifelong interest in these birds.

Front Cover: A pair of Mississippi Kites.