

93rd Annual Meeting
Eastern Bird Banding
Association
8-10 April 2016

Blackwater Falls State Park
Davis, West Virginia

The theme for the 2016 annual meeting is:

Birding with a Purpose:
Bird banding to further bird conservation.

Banquet Speaker: Scott Weidensaul on “Messing Around with Birds (For Fun and Science)”.
Friday Evening Speaker: Richard Bailey on West Virginia birds and their conservation.

Saturday presentations will focus on using bird banding to inform bird conservation decision making. Abstract submission deadline 1 March 2016, please contact Maren Gimpel (mgimpel2@washcoll.edu)

Field Trips: Saturday and Sunday morning field trips will visit local areas such as Canaan Valley National Wildlife Refuge, Blackwater Falls and Canaan Heights.

Meeting attendees must book their own hotel reservations; to receive the $76.50 (+ 12% tax) “EBBA group rate” mention that you are attending the Eastern Bird Banding Association meeting. To obtain the group rate attendees must stay a minimum of two nights. Our block of rooms will be held until 7 March 2016. See the EBBA web site for additional details and registration information (<http://www.easternbirdbanding.org/2016-ebba-meeting/>).

Contact David Hauber for donations to the annual bucket raffle and silent auction email: haubers3@penn.comm or phone 814-274-8946.

