

THE OHIO CARDINAL

DEVOTED TO THE STUDY AND APPRECIATION OF OHIO'S BIRDLIFE • VOL. 36, NO. 3 SPRING 2013

Only the most diligent and astute observers can locate Smith's Longspurs at the edge of their narrow migration path in western Ohio. Jen Brumfield pinpointed a flock and photographed this well camouflaged bird in a Mercer field on 28 April.

On the cover:

The appearance this Golden-winged Warbler created excitement on the Magee boardwalk, as these tiny gems are rapidly declining in population. Dennis Hills captured this outstanding image on 04 May
