CONTENTS

The Editor wishes to take this opportunity to wish all members of the Association a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year. It is also a pleasure to take this occasion to thank all of those members who have helped by contributing to our several projects and to sending in their news items of interest. Unfortunately, it's not too late to present your friends with XMAS remembrances as Christmas gifts.

EDITORIAL

The next annual meeting will be held on Saturday, March 24, 1952, at the Hamilton House in Natural Bridge, New York City. Mr. Charles E. Skiffing has kindly consented to give the program for this meeting. Although our plans are not yet definite, there will probably be a dinner in the evening and a field trip on the

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Your Editor wishes to take this opportunity to wish all members of EBBA a Merry Christmas and a busy banding New Year. He also wishes to take this occasion to thank all of those members who have helped by contributing to our several symposia and by sending in other news items of interest. Incidentally, it's not too late to present your friends with EBBA memberships as Christmas gifts.

ANNUAL MEETING

The next annual meeting will be held on Saturday, March 29, 1952, at the American Museum of Natural History in New York City. Mr. Charles K. Nichols has kindly consented to make arrangements for this meeting. Although our plans are not yet definite there will probably be a dinner in the evening and a field trip on the
