

Old
Series,
Vol. LIX

CONTINUATION OF THE
BULLETIN OF THE NUTTALL ORNITHOLOGICAL CLUB

New
Series,
Vol. LI

The Auk

A Quarterly Journal of Ornithology

Vol. LI

JANUARY, 1934

No. 1

PUBLISHED BY

The American Ornithologists' Union

LANCASTER, PA.

Entered as second-class mail matter in the Post Office at Lancaster, Pa.

CONTENTS.

A NEW GENUS AND SPECIES OF Tanager FROM ECUADOR. By Robert T. Moore. (Plates I and II).....	1
A NESTING OF THE SLATY ANTSHRIKE ( Thamnophilus punctatus ) ON BARRO COLORADO ISLAND. By Alexander F. Skutch. (Plate III).....	8
THE HAWK MIGRATION ALONG THE KITTATINY RIDGE IN PENNSYLVANIA. By Earl L. Poole.....	17
BIRD NOTES FROM WHITEFISH POINT, MICHIGAN. By W. Bryant Tyrrell...	21
SOME OBSERVATIONS ON THE SEMIPALMATED PLOVER ( Charadrius semipalmatus ) AT ST. MARY'S ISLAND, PROVINCE OF QUEBEC, CANADA. By E. D. W. Spingarn. (Plate IV).....	27
THE MOURNING WARBLER ( Oporornis philadelphia ) NESTING IN WISCONSIN. By Owen J. Gromme. (Plate V).....	37
DESCRIPTION OF A NEW MEADOWLARK FROM SOUTHEASTERN MEXICO. By George B. Saunders.....	42
JOHN ELIOT THAYER 1862-1933. By John C. Phillips.....	46
THE SEMI-CENTENNIAL MEETING OF THE AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION, NOVEMBER 13-16, 1933. By T. S. Palmer.....	52
REPORT OF THE SECRETARY. By T. S. Palmer.....	67
REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BIRD PROTECTION. By H. C. Bryant.....	71
GENERAL NOTES.—An Influx of Leach's Petrels, 74; The Breeding Habits and Breeding Range of Leach's Petrel, 75; The Madeira Petrel in Ontario, 77; A New Petrel for North America, 77; Brown Pelican in Massachusetts, 77; Florida Cormorant from Dismal Swamp, Virginia, A Correction, 78; Little Blue Heron in Central New York, 78; American Egrets in Michigan, 78; Second Broods in the Mallard Duck, 78; Goshawk Breeding in Cheshire County, New Hampshire, 80; The Golden Eagle in North Carolina, 80; Yellow Rail at Battle Creek, Calhoun Co., Mich., 80; The Dowitcher, A New Bird for Kansas, 81; Dowitcher in Michigan, 81; The Red Phalarope at Martha's Vineyard Island, Mass., 81; Northern Phalarope and Baird's Sandpiper in Berkshire Co., Mass., 81; Northern Phalarope Collected near Columbus, Ohio, 82; A Melanistic Laughing Gull at Pensacola, Florida, 82; Gull Notes from the New Hampshire and Maine Coasts, 83; Additional 1932 New Hampshire Dovekie Records, 83; Large Sets of Ground Dove Eggs, 83; The Black Swift in St. Croix, 84; Speed of the Ruby-throated Hummingbird's Flight, 84; Food of the Gila Woodpecker, 84; A Family of Arkansas Kingbirds near Toledo, Ohio, 85; Rough-winged Swallow in Bristol County, Massachusetts, 85; Singing of the Tree Swallow, 86; The Raven and the Pine Siskin on Stony Man Mountain, Virginia, 87; Eastern House Wren Breeding in North Carolina, 87; Western House Wren in Bienville Parish, Louisiana, 88; Some Observations Indicating the Northeastward Extension of the Range of the Starling, 88; Does Bachman's Warbler Winter in Florida?, 89; The Calaveras Warbler in Montana, 89; Mourning Warbler and Lincoln's Sparrow in Western Virginia, 90; Notes on the Bobolink in West Virginia, 90; Brewer's Blackbird in Georgia, 91; Florida Grackle in Northern Georgia, 91; A Breeding Record for the Florida Grackle in the Piedmont Region of South Carolina, 91; Dickcissel in Lancaster County, Pa., 92; Sleeping Posture of House Finches on the Nest at Night, 92; The Alabama Towhee, an Addition to the Louisiana List, 92; Insects in the Winter Food of Tree Sparrows, 93; Rare Birds at Lake Ontelaunee, Reading, Pa., 94; Summer Bird Records for North Carolina, 94; Notes from Escambia County, Florida, 96; A Five Year Shore Bird Census at Daytona Beach, 97; Additional Notes on the Birds of Louisiana, 99; Records for Illinois and Michigan, 100; Additional Northeastern Illinois Notes, 100; Late Spring Records for Illinois, 101; Notes from Stutsman County, North Dakota, 102; Some West Indian Records of Charadriiformes, 103; Pteroptera as a Bird Food, 103.
RECENT LITERATURE.—The A. O. U. Memorial Volume, 105; Chapman's 'Autobiography of a Bird Lover,' 106; Bannerman's 'Birds of Tropical West Africa,' 107; Kuroda's 'Birds of the Island of Java,' 108; Phillips's 'Sportsman's Second Scrap book,' 108; Caum's 'Exotic Birds of Hawaii,' 109; Mrs. Bailey on Birds of the Mammoth Cave Region, 109; Lowe on the Primitive Character of the Penguins, 110; Ball's 'Jungle Fowls from Pacific Islands,' 110; Littlejohns' 'The Magic Voice,' 111; Bowen on the Distribution of African Birds, 112; Duck Decline in the Northwest, 112; Bennitt's Missouri 'Check-List,' 112; DuMont's 'List of the Birds of Iowa,' 113; Greene's 'Birds of the Atlanta, Georgia, Area,' 113; Ganler on the 'Water Birds of Reelfoot Lake,' 114; Other Ornithological Papers, 114; The Ornithological Journals, 117.
CORRESPONDENCE.—Semi-centennial Greetings from the Deutsche Ornithologische Gesellschaft, 125; from the Wilson Ornithological Club, 125; Bird Population in England, 126; The Ten-year Index to 'The Auk,' 126; Migrating Dovekies and the Polar Ice Cap, 129.
OBITUARIES.—Otto Widmann, 130; Ernst Hartert, 130; Herbert K. Job, 130; Lemuel Fox Woodward, 131; Frank Warren Langdon, 132; Frederick Gilmer Bonfils, 132; Norman Criddle, 133; Edward Bruce Williamson, 134; John Christopher O'Connor, 135; Normen Jefcoate Atkinson, 135; Edgar Crane Stiles, 136.
NOTES AND NEWS.—'The Auk' in 1934, 137; Sixtieth Anniversary of the Nuttall Ornithological Club, 137; Scarcity of Ducks, 137; The Stoneham Museum and Research Centre, 137; The British Trust for Ornithology, 138; Tribute to Dr. A. K. Fisher, 138; Retirement of Dr. Lönnberg, 138; Abolishment of the Post of State Ornithologist in Massachusetts, 138; George H. Mackay, Personal Mention, 138; Annual Meeting of the Baird Ornithological Club, 138; Twentieth Game Conference, 139.	