

THE FLIGHT OF BIRDS

Analyzed Through Slow-motion Photography

By JOHN H. STORER

In this 112-page book, Mr. Storer presents an analysis of bird flight and the modification of form for flight. In 172 illustrations, mostly enlargements from his motion pictures, he illustrates most of the points covered by the text.

"The book is recommended reading for every ornithologist."
Harvey I. Fisher in 'THE AUK'

"A thorough analysis of the remarkable adaptation of birds to flight."
'CANADIAN NATURE'

". . . attractive, interesting, and . . . presents sound physical explanations of many of the problems surrounding bird flight. Both the author and [publisher] are to be highly commended for this contribution to avian literature."

Robert T. Orr in 'PACIFIC DISCOVERY'

"It is a valuable addition to the only too slender library on bird flight and is in several respects the best of them."

Charles H. Blake in 'BULL. MASS. AUDUBON SOC.'

"Tout le contenu est de premier ordre."

Y. Rocard in 'LA REVUE SCIENTIFIQUE'

THE AUK

A Quarterly Journal of Ornithology

ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION

For publication in 'The Auk,' articles or notes must present material that has not been published elsewhere and that is of significance to ornithologists. All manuscripts should be typewritten, double spaced, with wide margins. Titles should be brief. Terminal bibliographies are used as a rule for long articles. Where fewer than five references to literature are made, they may be inserted in parentheses in the text. References in manuscript for 'General Notes' must always be in the text. Consult issues of 'The Auk' since January, 1949, for style of citation. Long articles should be summarized briefly. Footnotes, Roman numerals and ruled tables are to be avoided. Acknowledgments belong in the text. Line drawings must be in India ink on white paper or drawing board; usually these should be planned for at least one-half reduction when printed. Thus, details and lettering must be correspondingly large. Captions must be brief. Photographs must be hard, glossy prints of good contrast. Common and scientific names of North American birds should follow the A. O. U. Check-List except in taxonomic papers giving formal, critical discussions.

Proofs of all articles and notes will be sent to authors. Reprints from articles, 'General Notes,' and 'Correspondence' are to be paid for by the author. These must be ordered from the Editor on the blanks sent with the proof and must be returned with the proof. Printed covers can be furnished at additional cost.

All articles and notes submitted for publication and all books and publications intended for review should be sent to the Editor,
