

*Outstanding High-Fidelity Recordings Featuring
Bird Songs from the North American Continent:*

AMERICAN BIRD SONGS

Volume One AMERICA'S most familiar birds are heard on a record that has brought pleasure to thousands. In a fine second issue on a single long-playing disk, the voices of the Robin, Catbird, Oriole, Chickadee, Veery, Mockingbird, and Cardinal sing out with clarity and authenticity. Game birds, southern birds, and birds of the fields and prairies are also included, making this volume a delightful introduction to native wildlife for children and adults.

Volume Two THE beauty and fidelity of sound on this record are a tribute to the knowledge, patience, and consummate skill of Professors Kellogg and Allen, Cornell University's world-renowned ornithologists. Nature study groups, bird lovers, schools, camps, and professional ornithologists have found it not only an authoritative guide, but a source of delightful entertainment as a unique and educational listening experience.

MEXICAN BIRD SONGS

RECORDED by L. Irby Davis, this disk features 74 typical Mexican birds chosen to represent as many families as possible. The range of songs is a wide and fascinating one—from the haunting notes of the unbelievably beautiful Quetzal to the liquid flute-like tones of the Slate-colored Solitaire, often called the world's finest songster. Those familiar with the voices of our native birds will want to take this opportunity for an introduction to new and distinctive melodies from "south-of-the-border."

THE AUK

A Quarterly Journal of Ornithology

ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION

For publication in 'The Auk,' articles or notes must present material that is of significance to ornithologists and that has not been published elsewhere. All manuscripts should be typewritten, double spaced, with wide margins. Titles should be brief. Terminal bibliographies are used as a rule for long articles. Only works actually cited in the text are to be included in these bibliographies; works not so cited will be deleted by the editors. Where fewer than five references to literature are made, they may be inserted in parentheses in the text. References in manuscript for 'General Notes' should be in the text. Consult issues of 'The Auk' since January, 1949, for style of citation. Long articles should be summarized briefly. Footnotes, Roman numerals, and ruled tables are to be avoided. Acknowledgments belong in the text. Line drawings must be in India ink on white paper or drawing board; usually these should be planned for at least one-half reduction when printed. Thus, details and lettering must be correspondingly large. Legends must be brief. Photographs must be hard, glossy prints of good contrast. Common and scientific names of North American birds should follow the A.O.U. Check-List (Fifth Edition), except in taxonomic papers giving critical discussions and in justified special cases.

Proofs of all articles and notes will be sent to authors. Reprints from articles, 'General Notes,' and 'Correspondence' are to be paid for by the author. These must be ordered from the Editor on the blanks sent with the proof and must be returned with the proof. Printed covers can be furnished at additional cost.

All articles and notes submitted for publication and all books and publications intended for review should be sent to the Editor.

Says:

"Audubon Field Notes provides the bird students, both amateur and professional, with a wealth of factual data about the populations, migrations, and distribution of the avifauna of North America.

"Audubon Field Notes is truly a cooperative publication. The bird students contribute information about the birdlife in their particular area and they in turn gain much knowledge about the avifauna in other sections of our continent by reading the Regional Reports.

"Many readers plan their vacations to coincide with peak migrations or breeding populations in other sections of North America by consulting Audubon Field Notes."
