ROBERT J. NEWMAN

TREASURER, AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION

Says:

"Though frequently called 'bird watchers,' most American bird enthusiasts concentrate on bird-finding, a fascinating pursuit that is particularly fascinating on this continent and an activity at which they are especially adept. Audubon Field Notes provides the most up-to-date and comprehensive news regarding bird-finding and is therefore a 'must' for every such enthusiast. At the same time, the journal is accumulating a wealth of data about the distribution of birds with vast potentialities for scientific analysis. As a result, Audubon Field Notes is one bird periodical that neither the specialized student of bird ranges nor the average amateur can afford to miss."

THE AUK

A Quarterly Journal of Ornithology

ORGAN OF THE AMERICAN ORNITHOLOGISTS' UNION

THE AUK is edited at the Museum of Natural History, The University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kansas 66045, by the following staff:

Editor, ROBERT M. MENGEL; Assistant Editor, J. KNOX JONES, JR.

Editorial Assistants, ERWIN E. KLAAS, LINDA T. KLAAS, and GARY C. PACKARD.

The Auk welcomes original articles and short notes, not published elsewhere, containing significant new knowledge about birds, or new interpretation of existing knowledge. Address all articles and notes intended for publication and all books intended for review to the editor.

Suggestions to contributors.—The efficient and economical transmission of knowledge by means of the printed word requires effective participation of author, editor, and printer. In order to facilitate the task of the printer, the editor should receive from authors MSS satisfying the following minimal requirements: MSS should be typewritten, double-spaced (especially tables and "literature cited"), on one side of numbered sheets of standard (8½ × 11 in.) bond paper, with at least one inch margin all around. Tables (which should be unruled) and legends should be typed on separate sheets. Drawings should be in India ink on good board or drafting papers and lettered by lettering guide or the equivalent. Photographs should be clear, of good contrast, on glossy paper. Illustrations should allow (with particular regard to lettering) for reduction to ½ their original dimensions (final width will usually be 4¼ in.).

Scientific and (if any) vernacular names of birds should be given upon first mention thereof and should follow the A. O. U. Check-list (1957) or the appropriate equivalent unless departures are explained and defended.

For bird weights and measurements, use metric units; for environmental and other precise measurements, metric units are recommended but English equivalents may be supplied parenthetically. The 24-hour clock and "continental" dating (e.g., 1 July 1758) are likewise recommended.

Titles should be short and descriptive. MSS should follow the conventions of form observed in articles, general notes, and reviews in The Auk, with minor variations, since 1950. If more than 10 works are cited, references in text should relate to a terminal list of "literature cited" (see Auk, vols. 78 or 79 for form; include no titles not cited) except in general notes, where citation should normally be in text. Avoid footnotes. Where critical matter is cited from longer papers, indicate the pertinent pages, e.g. "(Lack, 1947: 96-97)." Citations in text should be parenthetical, e.g. "(D. Lack, 1947. Darwin's finches. Cambridge Univ. Press)" or "(Auk, 79: 251, 1962)." Verify all citations from original sources unless impossible, in which case so indicate.

Articles more than 10 pp. long should include a summary that should not exceed 10 per cent of the length of the article.

For abbreviations and minor matters of form see recent issues of The Auk. The Style manual for biological journals (Washington, D. C., Amer. Inst. Biol. Sci., 1960) is generally useful also. In controversial matters of form The Auk frequently relies finally on the dicta of A manual of style (Chicago, Univ. Chicago Press, 1949).

Proofs of all articles and notes will be sent to authors. Reprints of articles, notes, and other items are to be paid for by the author. These must be ordered from the editor on the blanks sent with the proof and to be returned therewith. Printed covers can be furnished at additional cost.
