

BUSINESS MANAGER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Important Condor Information

This number closes the best volume in THE CONDOR'S career. With the co-operation of all the members and subscribers we can make 1911 a winner. Co-operation means success.

We want every public library in the west to be taking THE CONDOR before 1912. This means for you to see that your library has it. Please do this, and "Do it now."

We want every member to bring in at least one new member and as many more as possible. Remember one thing, kind reader, that both the business managers are very busy men and every help from the outside is a big help. The finances of THE CONDOR will not stand any expenses for clerk hire, and all the drudgery must be borne by the business managers. Hence we ask "co-operation." You will please note that the business managers are always open for suggestions and are very glad for any advice, which will help out THE CONDOR.

We think we are publishing the finest bird magazine in the world, not in size, but in the quality of the articles and half-tones, and, not least, the printing, and the paper it is printed on. Don't you think so, too?

Boost and help us make it better than ever, for the larger the membership and subscriber's list, the better we can make THE CONDOR.

Once more I ask you to help us by bringing in new members and new subscribers and by promptly paying up your own dues and subscriptions.

Remember the Cooper Club's avowed principles:

- "For the observation and co-operative Study of Birds, because of the resulting pleasure;
- For the spread of interest in Bird Study, so that this pleasure may be shared by others;
- For the publication of Ornithological knowledge, as being a contribution to science."

W. LEE CHAMBERS,

Bus. Manager, THE CONDOR,

R. F. D. No. 1, Box 73 D.

LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Please send all dues and subscriptions and all CONDOR business of any kind to the above address.
