

THE COOPER CLUB is selling the library left by the late Luther E. Wyman. Among the books are Coues' "Key"; Ridgway's "Manual"; Bent's "Life Histories"; Forbush's "Wild Fowl and Game Birds of New England"; Macoun's "Catalogue of Canadian Birds"; Reed's "Color Key"; Nelson's and Turner's "Birds of Alaska"; "Animal Life of Yosemite"; "Birds of New York", etc., etc. Also a large list of separates. W. LEE CHAMBERS, Drawer 123, Eagle Rock, Calif.

WANTED.—Live land snails from California and Mexico.—RALPH W. JACKSON, Route No. 1, Cambridge, Maryland.

FOR SALE.—Complete set of Condor and Pacific Coast Avifauna; Condor in covers as issued, clean; Avifauna partly bound in brown buckram.—RALPH W. JACKSON, Route No. 1, Cambridge, Maryland.

BIRDS FROM COSTA RICA.—By April, 1928, I expect to have for disposal 500 or more skins, representing at least 200 forms, mostly land birds of small to medium size, nearly all resident. Specimens molded to pleasing contour, clean and fresh plumage, and amply labeled. Offered in lot only, and priced at $1 per skin net. Additional information on request.—AUSTIN SMITH, Apartado 412, San José, Costa Rica.

BEAUTIFULLY COLORED lantern slides of Western birds, photographed from life during the nesting season with Zeiss Protar and Tessar and Cooke Aviar lenses. In lots to suit up to 1200. Excellent for illustrated lectures in schools and universities. List and price on application.—WALTER BRUCE, 813 Lincoln Place, Spokane, Wash.

WANTED FOR CASH.—North American Fauna Nos. 1 to 23 and No. 40.—PAUL E. TRAPIER, 3672 Mentone Ave., Palms, Calif.

FOR SALE.—My collection of skins and mounted birds, 700 species. Over 200 different books including Condor, O. & O., Bird-Lore, Oologist, Nidologist, Ridgway's Birds of North and Middle America, Bendire, Bent, Baird Brewer and Ridgway, Coues, Belding, etc.; 2500 prehistoric Indian relics; 6000 marine and fresh water shells; 75 old French letters, manuscripts and parchments. Many other odd collections.—H. F. DUPREY, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 112, Dixon, Calif.

A FEW EXTRA nice Florida sets of eggs, both common and rare, to exchange for sets or skins. Send list to HAROLD H. BAILEY, 206 Exchange Bldg., Miami, Fla.

FOR SALE AT COST.—Biological Survey Bulletin nos. 30 and 34, Birds of Calif. in relation to fruit industry; no. 37, Food of Woodpeckers, no. 44, Food of Flycatchers. Bound separately in cloth. Auk, 1923 and 1924, unbound at half price.—MARY MANN MILLER, 5928 Hayes Ave., Los Angeles, Calif.

WANTED.—To exchange separates and excerpts on birds, fish, insects, etc., for similar material on reptiles and amphibians.—L. M. KLAUBER, Box 1374, San Diego, California.

LET US EXCHANGE.—I need the following issues of Bird-Lore: Vol. 1, no. 2; vol. 2, no. 2; vol. 3, no. 2; vol. 4, nos. 1 and 2; vol. 5, no. 1; vol. 7, no. 1; vol. 8, no. 3; vol. 9, nos. 3 and 6; vol. 11, nos. 1 and 5. For the issue wanted in any volume I will exchange any other issue of the same volume; all to be good clean copies; or will pay cash for them. Have for sale: Blue Bird, vols. 6 to 10, inclusive; Birds and Nature, vols. 1 to 19; American Ornithology, complete set; Guide to Nature, 1914 to 1920; Ornithologist and Oologist, vol. 9 and 14 to 18. If interested, make offer for such as you want.—W. H. BROOM-HALL, Stockport, Ohio.

Are your interests in natural history confined to birds?

If not then join the

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF MAMMALOGISTS

The Journal of Mammalogy is now starting its ninth volume, and includes some 350 illustrated pages per year of interesting articles pertaining to our four-footed neighbors. Most of this is popular in tone and of infinite variety. Have you derived pleasure from the birds? An equal pleasure is to be found in mammals. The Journal is sent free to members in good standing, and dues, of $3.00 per year, should be sent with application for membership to the Corresponding Secretary,

A. BRAZIER HOWELL

NATIONAL MUSEUM, WASHINGTON, D. C.