MANUSCRIPTS

Send manuscripts for publication to the Editor, James R. King, Department of Zoology, Washington State University, Pullman, Washington 99163. Manuscripts should contain original information and a clear indication of its significance and its relationship to existing knowledge. Material that has been published elsewhere in any substantial part cannot be included.

Submit copy typewritten on one side of standard ($8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ inch) bond paper. Text pages through the list of references should be numbered. Tables and legends for figures should be included as separate, unnumbered pages.

Drawings must be made with India ink on durable paper or board. Photographic reproductions of drawings are acceptable if they are glossy prints of professional quality. Do not use typewritten labels within a drawing or graph. Photographs to be reproduced as halftones must be glossy prints of good contrast. Illustrations should be planned to permit reduction without loss of legibility or significant detail (approximate maximum width is 12 cm).

Provide a concise, definitive title and, if necessary, subheadings within the text. A terminal list of references should be given for articles that contain more than five literature citations. Otherwise, citations may be included parenthetically in the text. Check the accuracy of citations against original sources and adhere to bibliographic form in past issues of The Condor. A factual summary is recommended for longer papers.

Scientific names of species should follow the usage of the A.O.U. Check-list of North American Birds, Fifth Edition (1957), or an appropriate equivalent. The use of metric units is required in all measurements of birds and their physical environment; exceptions can be made in specific cases if there is a defensible preference for English units. The military system of calendar notation (e.g., 1 January 1966) will be applied uniformly, and the use of military clock-time is strongly recommended.

For abbreviations, including the titles of serial publications, consult the Style Manual for Biological Journals, Second Edition (Amer. Inst. Biol. Sci., Washington, D.C. 1964), or past issues of The Condor.
