WANTED—Correspondence from persons having skins of Amazonia guildingii (St. Vincent Parrot) to complete a study. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Duncan Nichols, 2004 Bissonnet, Houston, Texas 77005.

WANTED—Field assistant to help find and watch nests of Mexican jays for two weeks during the period 24 March-31 May 1973. Compensation consists of enough money to pay room and meals at research station in Arizona for about two weeks. Write: Jerry Brown, Biology Dept., University of Rochester, Rochester, N.Y. 14627.

REQUEST FOR SPECIMENS—The University of California at Santa Barbara conducts a large scale program in the natural history of terrestrial vertebrates. However, our small collection of specimens severely limits the program. We would like to acquire additional specimens, especially of western North American forms but other forms, even foreign ones, would be desirable. We would welcome the donation of specimens no matter how small the collection and could probably use the specimens more valuably than institutions maintaining large collections. Stephen I. Rothstein, Department of Biological Sciences, University of California, Santa Barbara, Ca. 93106.

FOR SALE—Dementiev and Gladkov. 1960. Systema Avium Rossicarum. Volume 2, special number of L'Oiseau et la Revue Francaise d'Ornithologie. Banko. 1960. The Trumpeter Swan. Huxley. 1942. Evolution: The Modern Synthesis. R. M. Schramm, 120 NW Trinity Place, Portland, Oregon 97209.
