

NEWS AND NOTES

DISEASE AND MANAGEMENT OF THREATENED BIRD POPULATIONS— REGISTER OF LABORATORIES AND CENTERS

The International Council for Bird Preservation is publishing the proceedings, edited by J. E. Cooper, of a Symposium on Disease and Management of Threatened Wild Bird Populations held in Canada in 1986. With growing interest in, and appreciation of, the importance of disease and wildlife conservation it was agreed to include a register of persons and organizations working on all aspects of avian pathology and disease. Anyone who would like to be listed in the register please write as soon as possible for details and a questionnaire to: N. Hillgarth, Department of Zoology, South Parks Road, Oxford OX1 3PS, England, or to J. E. Cooper, Royal College of Surgeons of England, 35-43 Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3PN, England.

COOPER ORNITHOLOGICAL SOCIETY ANNUAL MEETING

The 59th annual meeting will take place in Moscow, Idaho, at the University of Idaho from 22 to 26 June 1989. The Cooper meeting will include a variety of events in addition to the scientific program, including rafting on local scenic rivers and tours of a nearby national wildlife refuge. Dr. J. Michael Scott (U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of Fish and Wildlife, College of Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences, University of Idaho, Moscow, ID 83843) will be local chairman. Anyone interested in conducting workshops or mini-symposia during the meeting should immediately contact Dr. Edward O. Garton, Department of Fish and Wildlife, College of Forestry, Wildlife and Range Sciences, University of Idaho, Moscow, ID 83843 (208-885-7426).

LONG-TERM ECOLOGICAL STUDIES OF BIRDS

A symposium titled Long-term Ecological Studies of Birds will be held during the 59th annual meeting of the Cooper Ornithological Society, 22 to 26 June 1989, Moscow, Idaho. Papers describing the results of long-term studies of population dynamics, behavior, foraging ecology, or other ecological aspects of birds are invited. For further information or to submit an abstract write to: E. O. Garton, Fish and Wildlife Department, University of Idaho, Moscow, ID 83843 (208-885-7426).
