

NOTES.

ALBINO ROBINS.—Two years ago (in 1900) a Robin with numerous white feathers about the back and breast, and with two or three white tail feathers, was found raising a family on Morgan street in Oberlin. That same bird returned last year and this and raised a family. During July and August of last year (1901) a Robin with rather more white than the Morgan street individual possessed, made its appearance on North Professor street. To all appearance it was a bird of the year, and a female. Nothing was seen of this new individual during the breeding season, but during July and August, and to date, a Robin all white except the head and upper breast and one or two tail feathers and three or four wing feathers, has been a common sight, morning and evening, near the place where the second partial albino was discovered last year. In fact, not less than three partial albinos have been seen in Oberlin during the summer. The first one, the Morgan street female, was carefully protected, and the others have also been as carefully watched over, and it does not seem unlikely that we have developing in our midst a colony of partial albino Robins, at least one of the offsprings of which each year shows increasingly a tendency to albinism. If the birds were only content to remain with us all winter the possibility of preserving the colony would be good, but the dangers of migration make their return next season uncertain.

CAPTURE OF AN AMERICAN EGRET (Ardea egretta) IN CHESTER COUNTY, PENNA.—Mr. Gallagher, of Berwyn Mills, one mile southeast of Berwyn, shot a male in summer plumage, in his father's meadow along Darby creek, early in the morning of July 26, 1902. It had probably wandered up the creek from the Delaware river during one of the rainy days of the unusually stormy July. Measuring: Bill, 4.25; tarsus, 6.20, and wing, 16.00, in inches; it shows up remarkably large in comparison with a Florida specimen secured recently from Frank B. Webster.—FRANK L. BURNS, Berwyn, Penna.
