

to be an adult male English Sparrow, Passer domesticus.

The bird was caught in the Central Theater, in Martinsburg, West Virginia, on the morning of January 16, 1940, and it was thought to have gotten into the building through a ventilator fan. Mr. Clowser took the bird to his shop, hoping that it would survive. It was fed that day and Mr. Clowser stated that the sparrow turned its head sideways while eating. The next day it died.

In the picture there is noticeable the head of a pin which was run through the orbits to hold the bird to the backboard while it was photographed. The curved length of the upper mandible measured 36 mm. The lower mandible seemed to be somewhat atrophied. Unfortunately, I was unable to obtain the bird for a more complete examination and dissection. Aside from the deformed beak it appeared to be quite normal. J. LLOYD POLAND, Department of Botany and Zoology, West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia.

Mississippi Bird Records.—I wish to thank Dr. Alexander Wetmore, U.S. National Museum, Washington, D.C., for these subspecific identifications and for confirming my identification of the Swainson's Warbler.

Sanderling, Crocethia alba. A specimen was collected August 17, 1939, at Legion Lake, two miles south of Rosedale, and is probably the first one collected in this section of the state.

Northern Carolina Chickadee, Penthestes carolinensis extimus. This form has not heretofore been reported from the state. A bird was found dead on the highway just south of Columbus, Mississippi, April 29, 1932, and proved to be extimus.

Swainson's Warbler, Limnothlypis swainsoni. A bird collected July 17, 1939, a male, was this species. A pair was noted at the time. The specimen was in partial moult and probably nested in the small woods where collected. It was taken one-half mile south of Moorhead, Sunflower County.

Labrador Savannah Sparrow, Passerculus sandwichensis labradorius. A bird taken January 7, 1937, a female, at Legion Lake, two miles south of Rosedale was identified as this form. I find no record of this race having been taken in the state.—M. GORDON VAIDEN, Rosedale, Bolivar County, Mississippi.
