

NEW LIFE MEMBERS

CECIL BILLINGTON has long been associated with the Evening News Association and with Booth Newspapers, Inc. of Detroit. His important contributions to horticulture and to systematic botany have been recognized by his appointment as Honorary Curator of Phanerogams in the University of Michigan Herbarium and by the award of the Esther Longyear Murphy Medal "for distinguished service to horticulture." He is a Trustee of The Cranbrook Foundation and of Cranbrook Institute of Science. His publications include several papers on Michigan flowering plants and ferns and a book (1943) on the shrubs of Michigan.

DR. ALEXANDER W. BLAIN, a founder of the American College of Surgeons and of the American Board of Surgeons, is now Professor of Surgery at Wayne University and Chief of Staff of the Alexander Blain Hospital and Clinic, Detroit. He serves on the editorial board of several surgical journals and is the author of numerous papers on surgery. But in addition, he takes an active and enthusiastic interest in the fields of botany, mammalogy, and ornithology. He has been a member of the Wilson Ornithological Club since 1902. In 1903 he issued the call which led to the reorganization of the Michigan Ornithological Club. He edited its "Bulletin" through 1903 and 1904 and was Secretary of the Club in 1905. With Jefferson Butler he organized the Michigan Audubon Society in 1904. He was a member of the Michigan State Conservation Commission from 1939 to 1945.

TO OUR CONTRIBUTORS

Our members are asked to submit articles for publication in the Bulletin. Manuscripts will be accepted only with the understanding that they have not previously been published or accepted for publication elsewhere.

MANUSCRIPT. Manuscripts should be typed, with double-spacing and wide margins, on one side of white paper of good quality and of standard size (8½ x 11). The title should be brief and should indicate the subject clearly. Ordinarily the scientific names of the birds treated should be given and should appear early in the article. Most articles should conclude with a brief summary.

BIBLIOGRAPHY. Literature referred to in the text should be cited by author's name, year of publication, and exact page of the particular reference. Such literature should ordinarily be listed in full at the end of the paper.

ILLUSTRATIONS. Photographic prints, to reproduce well as half-tones, should have good contrast and detail. Please send prints unmounted, and attach to each print a brief but adequate legend. Do not write heavily on the backs of photographs.

PROOF. Authors are requested to return proof promptly. Expensive alterations in copy after the type has been set must be charged to the author.

REPRINTS. Orders for reprints, which are furnished to authors at cost, should accompany the returned galley proof.
