

NEW LIFE MEMBER

Mrs. Robert V. D. (Kay F.) Booth, a member of the Wilson Ornithological Society since 1949, resides with her husband and two boys in Painesville, Ohio. Along with many family activities she finds the time to talk before adult and youth groups on bird study and conservation, to band birds, and to participate in the work of the Blackbrook Audubon Society (recently President) and the Cleveland Audubon Society (formerly Editor of the Cleveland Audubon Bulletin; now Vice-President and one of the bird walk leaders). She enjoys attending annual meetings of the Wilson Society, as well as those of the American Ornithologists' Union and Cooper Ornithological Society to which she belongs. In 1954 she attended the Eleventh International Ornithological Congress in Switzerland.
