1987 ANNUAL MEETING

The WILSON ORNITHOLOGICAL SOCIETY will hold its 68th annual meeting at Utica College of Syracuse University from 27 to 31 May 1987. The event will be a joint meeting with the Eastern Bird Banding Association and will be hosted by Utica College together with the Kirkland and Oneida Bird Clubs. JUDITH W. MCINTYRE, Utica College, Utica, New York 13502, is chairing the Local Committee. JON C. BARLOW, Department of Ornithology, Royal Ontario Museum, 100 Queen's Park, Toronto, Canada M5S 2C6, is chairing the Program Committee and invites suggestions for symposia.

There will be two special exhibits: (1) a reception will be given on Friday night by the Munson-William-Proctor Institute of Utica for their special exhibit of Birds in Art, and (2) Karen Allaben-Confer, winner of the first George Miksch Sutton Award from the Wilson Ornithological Society will exhibit her most recent work in the Barrett Art Gallery at Utica College.

Field trips planned include a trip to a bog, local birding, a mushroom walk, and a journey to the Oneida Community. Sunday field trips will include the Adirondack Park and a surprise birding adventure led by Susan Drennan, author of "Where to Find Birds in New York State." A circular of information and a call for papers will be distributed shortly.
